WRITERS HELPING WRITERS

June 11, 2009 by swfwa

Welcome to all of our members and all viewers who may be considering becoming members of our writing family.

We believe that every person has a story to tell and our goal is to help you capture that story in a skillful manner. We want your story to be suitable for presentation to your family, friends and the publishing world. We seek to aid you in every aspect of writing for you personal enjoyment or for commercial applications.

After your visit to this site, you may elect to join our group, or to simply attend one of our monthly meeting to see if writing is right for you. Our members are always glad to share their experiences and always willing to give you their best advice. We welcome you and look forward to meeting with you.

By participation in our organization, you will learn much about the fine craft of writing. You will gain insight regarding the high standards of the publishing business and the best way to present your work. Of course we encourage you to participate in the critique studies and to work toward the betterment of your skills as a writer. We will provide workshops and speakers that will all assist you toward that goal.

A few notable quotes on writing:

"It's none of their business that you have to learn to write. Let them think you were born that way." E. Hemingway

"Writing is a lot easier if you have something to say." Sholem Asch

"Writing is a socially acceptable form of schizophrenia." E.L.Doctrow

"Writing is not necessarily something to be ashamed of, but do it in private and wash your hands afterwards." R.A.Heinlein
