Hello, everybody!!!

Can you believe it has been a month already since our Annual Meeting at your place on November 4? I am STILL hearing comments about what a wonderful meeting it was, and I'm gonna stick my hand in the fire and say it was the best ever since I began work at SWFLN in 1998.

Raves and raves and raves about the room, the food, the location, the ambiance, YOU NAME IT.

It couldn't have been possible without Cindy's initial passion in getting us booked there thank you, Cindy. And, then, the ball was picked up by Shelly and Tami to facilitate the room and the food and the decorations.

And, then, OF COURSE, Steven and his assistance with logistics and details for sound, all this directed by Bill Shuluk.

And the kind appearance and words by Dr. Pendleton.

THANKS TO ALL OF YOU, who made this event so successful and wonderful. I have been meaning to send this thank you to all of you for many weeks, but the time has slipped away and I didn't want it go by one more second. And I wanted it to be an individual message to each but, again, lack of time at the moment prevents me from doing this.

But please know how thankful and appreciative we are to EVERYBODY at Edison who facilitated this successful event for us. We are so glad to have you as members and be true testimonies of what being associated in a cooperative is all about. If I have been remiss and left anybody off of this message that had a part of this event, please forward our kind thanks to them as well.

Happy Holidays to all of you, and may you all be blessed in 2011!!!
