1	please, extend library hours until 11 PM or before midnight	Apr 6, 2012 10:08 PM
2	wasted space on first floor use for those of us paying for school	Apr 5, 2012 4:48 AM
3	Every time I come to quite study in one of the study rooms that have large tables I always get kicked out because I am by myself they should have individual study rooms with only one big table so I can lay out my items and study peacefully without getting distracted by wondering if someone is going to kick me out. As well as being able to have a certain limit on the study rooms because some people just come to the library to sit and listen to music while others have to actually study.	Apr 3, 2012 10:11 AM
4	best thing I did this term was ask a Edison State College librarian for help! Thank you	Apr 3, 2012 9:49 AM
5	To have extra tutoring on site if we can't get help at the study labs due to scheduling,etc.	Apr 1, 2012 3:40 PM
6	More study rooms and computers :)	Mar 28, 2012 1:26 PM
7	The online library database is a bit difficult to navigate.	Mar 27, 2012 2:52 PM
8	The Library could use more computers for students, not so much for the public's use.	Mar 27, 2012 1:42 PM
9	The staff a great help and caring. The library its self could use a re-vamping and a cleaning. Would like to see better study areas where you can find quite space. The common area is full of people just playing on the computers not getting any work done which takes computer time away from more serious students. Allowing the public to use the computers is not such a good idea. There are some creepy nasty people who come in here from off the streets and surf porn.	Mar 27, 2012 5:36 AM
10	There's to many people who come ehre and goof off on the computer during classes, there's nothing wrong with it but since thier is so many students and not as many computers it gets annoying when you actually want to work on something but they are all filled, or you sit next to a loud group, or someone blaring music. My suggestion is maybe having like an actualy study hall place. I'n aware thier is the writting labs but those are not as friendly as a room just full of computers. I think at one point the middle room of the library was an excellent area but it just got to loud.	Mar 23, 2012 9:15 AM
11	The only time I have issues finding a computer area is during final exams. Also, the study rooms on the 3rd floor of the library are not easy to access using my wheelchair. The tables are very large, resulting in difficult turns for me. I hope that it may be resolved for future students.	Mar 22, 2012 7:17 AM
12	There should be some more study rooms or quiet rooms where individuals can study without having to be kicked out or moved for another can use it for entertainment instead of study.....	Mar 21, 2012 11:39 AM
13	Thank You	Mar 19, 2012 10:46 AM
14	what's with all the wasted space on the 1st floor why doesn't the library use that	Mar 18, 2012 2:30 AM
