

Dr. Pendleton will be reporting to the students at the 3rd floor desk when she is out of the office.

If anyone should come to see her or knock on her door please tell them where she is and when she will be back.

Please take any information they would share with you and make note of it for the next person.

Thank you
Rush Library Staff