Stevo – can you attach the overview you sent me about program implementation to this and place in our Collection Management folder in the doc. manager?

Subject: e-reader program - update

Good afternoon,

I was curious to see how our e-reader program was performing. I put together (with help from circ.) the following snapshot.

1. Our policy was fully implemented in July 2013 with all campus libraries participating.
2. We have a total of 36 devices across our four libraries.
3. The devices have cost a total of $2,184.00.
4. We have ordered a total of 300 titles –
2010- 8 titles.
2011-64 titles.
2012-84 titles.
2013 to date – 124 titles.
5. There have been 241 loans of these devices. (see attachment for details).

We will have a much better picture of how effective this has been after a full year of data. I think our measured approach to implementing this program was the way to go.

Hey Bill,

According to the Open dates for the items I have drawn the following information:

June 2011 – Kindle Wi-Fi's [Original] Cataloged. At this time the Kindle's were allowed for only In Library Use for 3 hours and contained only Reserved and Required Reading books.

April 2012 – Hendry-Glades received the Kindle Fires [checking with Arenthia if she let these leave at first? Peggy maybe you remember? I know I don't]

May 2013 – New Kindle Fires [and two PapwerWhites] were cataloged, these were intended for three week loans with no renewals.

The Library purchases Kindle ebooks to load, each Kindle holds a unique set of books. The catalog has been updated with a table of contents note with the title and author of the books loaded on each individual Kindle. The table of contents is updated when more titles are purchased and added to each device. See the attached report which compliments the data Peggy has extracted from ALEPH, this report has the Item's Open date from the system.

Cheers,

Steve

Kindle Fires!

07/09/2013

All Edison State College Libraries now have Kindle Fires available for student use. All currently enrolled students (as well as Faculty and Staff) are welcome to check out a Kindle Fire for up to three weeks.

The more these kinds of resources are used, the more incentive there will be to expand services like this. If you're interested, ask at the Circulation Desk of your nearest Edison State College library.
