1- Critical thinking journals discussion resumed from our last meeting. The following is the last editions and revisions approved by the committee:

Cornerstone Experience: Critical Thinking Journal

The purpose of the Critical Thinking Journal assignment is to reflect upon the 7 topics below by connecting your ideas to the following outcomes:

- a) Clarity and Logic;
- b) Accuracy;
- c) Relevance; and
- d) Significance.

It is our expectation that all college written work will be submitted using Standard English grammar and mechanics.

Journal Entries

1. Reflect and analyze why you are attending college.

2. Using your SmarterMeasure and California Critical Thinking Disposition Inventory (CCTDI) results, identify your strengths and reflect on how these strengths will contribute to your success. Discover and outline your challenges by listing specific skills that you will improve during the next fourteen weeks.
3. Based upon your Personality Type report, identify three possible career choices that are suitable for you, and explain how one of those relates to your personality type, personal values, career interests and success factors.
4. Edison State College has established the following General Competencies for this course: Communications, Critical Thinking, and Technology/Information Management (TIM) as listed in your syllabus. Explain how developing these competencies will help you achieve social, academic, and career success.
5. Identify and discuss strategies for time management and financial responsibility to help you successfully complete your college education.
6. Describe how participation in Edison GPS (Go Picture Scribe) has helped you develop an appreciation for diversity. What role does diversity play in influencing your academic, social, and career success?

7. What have you learned about working with students in small groups to complete an assignment? What advice would you give to a new student, such as note taking, time management, career development, social engagement, and studying for an exam?

(Minimum word requirements: All journal entries should be no less than 200 words for each topic)

2- Proposed that True Colors to be utilized in conjunction with Myra Briggs for its simplicity. The committee agreed.

3 - Edison GPS (Go Picture Scribe) is the new name for the Passport. All SLS 1515 classes will utilize the new name beginning spring 2013.

4- The committee will begin to examine our textbook options during our meetings next semester. The committee is open to begin the discussion on Edison's own textbook.
