Action item #1

Proposal: HIM 2724 Basic ICD-10 Coding

Explanation: The proposal calls for changing the credits and contact hours to provide greater detail in the use and application of the new coding system. When asked how the change affected the total program hours, the response included proposing a new course and replacing ICD-9 at the next meeting with the new program total being equal to the original.

Recommendation: In a voice vote, the credits and contact hours were accepted. Applicable date is Fall 2014.

Status: Approved. Dennis J. Wright 3/11/14

Action item #2

Proposal: FIN 2100 Personal Finance

Explanation: The proposal deletes the prerequisite MTB 1103 and makes changes to the Course Description, General Topic Outline, and Learning Outcomes. The School of Business and Technology is in the process of reviewing learning outcomes, course descriptions and general course information to ensure the use of Bloom's Taxonomy in learning objectives in the present tense; to validate agreement between the course description, general course information and learning outcomes; and to inspect the general agreement between the course description in the Florida Statewide Course Profile descriptions. Changes are being driven by the professors who normally teach the courses.

Recommendation: In a voice vote, the changes to the course were accepted. Applicable date is Fall 2014.

Status: Approved. Dennis J. Wright 3/11/14

Action item #3

Proposal: FIN 2001 Business Finance

Explanation: The proposal changes the Course Description and Learning Outcomes. The School of Business and Technology is in the process of reviewing learning outcomes, course descriptions and general course information to ensure the use of Bloom's Taxonomy in learning objectives in the present tense; to validate agreement between the course description, general course information and learning outcomes; and to inspect the general agreement between the course description in the Florida Statewide Course Profile descriptions. Changes were driven by the professors who normally teach the courses.

Recommendation: In a voice vote, the changes to the course were accepted. Applicable date is Fall, 2014

Status: Approved. Bus Wright 3/11/14

Action item #4

Proposal: ENT 3003 Introduction to Entrepreneurship

Explanation: The proposal changes the Course Description and Learning Outcomes. Dr. Nay and Dr. Meyer were asked about the language in the course description previously that stated, "This course is restricted to students having declared a major for either a B.S. or B.A.S. program." They clarified that they wanted this language removed from the course description. The School of Business and Technology is in the process of reviewing learning outcomes, course descriptions and general course information to ensure the use of Bloom's Taxonomy in learning objectives in the present tense; to validate agreement between the course description, general course information and learning outcomes; and to inspect the general agreement between the course description in the Florida Statewide Course Profile descriptions. Changes were driven by the professors who normally teach the courses.

Recommendation: In a voice vote, the changes to the course were accepted. Applicable date is Fall, 2014

Status: Approved. Bus J. Wright 3/11/14

Action item #5

Proposal: MAR 2011 Marketing

Explanation: The proposal changes the Course Description, Topic Outline, and Learning Outcomes. The School of Business and Technology is in the process of reviewing learning outcomes, course descriptions and general course information to ensure the use of Bloom's Taxonomy in learning objectives in the present tense; to validate agreement between the course description, general course information and learning outcomes; and to inspect the general agreement between the course description in the Florida Statewide Course Profile descriptions. Changes were driven by the professors who normally teach the courses. The proposal presentation included justification for changing this course's designation from AS to AA. Since the request was not in this proposal or other proposals on the agenda, the chair concluded that it could be proposed for our March 2014 meeting, and the motion was made only on the Course Description and Learning Outcomes.

Recommendation: In a voice vote, the changes to the course were accepted.
Applicable date is Fall, 2014

Status: Approved. Denis S. Wright 3/11/14
