

Counselor Rights

Your counselor may exercise certain rights in the course of the counseling process. These include

- The right to seek consultation with other professionals regarding your case
- The right to terminate or refer to another counselor or agency
- If a counselor feels his/her services may not be appropriate for you, he/she may, after discussing these concerns with you, terminate therapy and/or refer you to a more appropriate individual or agency
- The right to expect your active involvement and cooperation in the counseling process
- The responsibility to uphold all student rights listed above

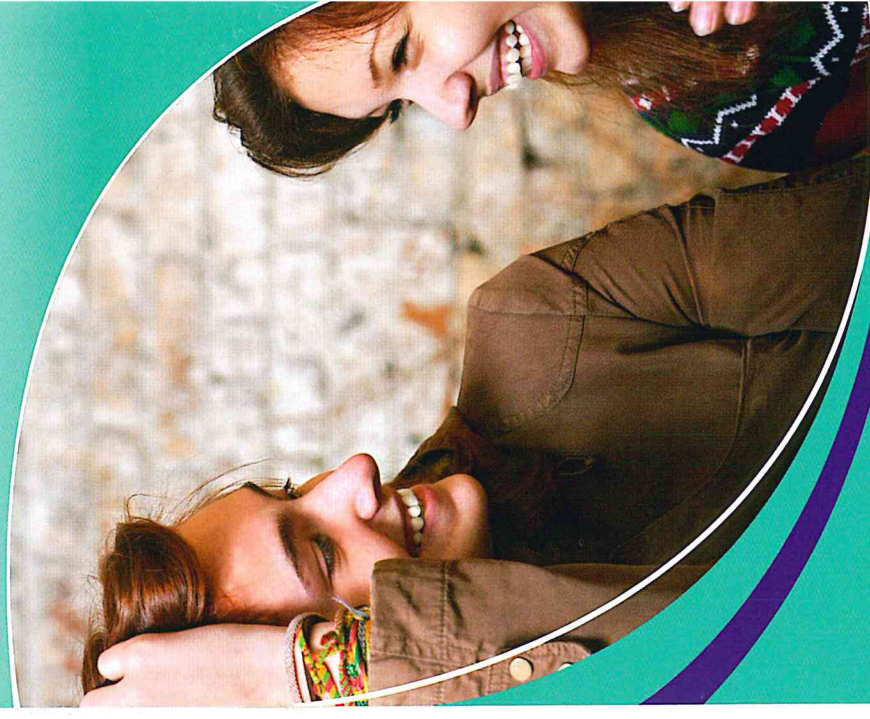

Charlotte Campus
Building J,
Room 115
(941) 833-5329

Collier Campus
Building J,
Room 211
(239) 732-3414

Hendry/Glades Center
Building A,
Front Desk
(863) 674-6000

Thomas Edison (Lee) Campus
Building Q,
Room 106
(239) 489-9046

Counseling Services

Available for all FSW Students