Section II, Justification for proposal

Include state frameworks, accrediting or professional organization recommendations or requirements, workforce data, and/or crosswalks.

Provide justification (below) for each change on this proposed curriculum action.
Course content previously covered in TAX 2401, Trusts, Estates, and Gifts: Accounting and Taxation, will be included in TAX 2010, Federal Tax Accounting II. Inclusion of FIN 2001 will provide a more comprehensive view of the accounting/finance field. The current framework does not require in-depth accounting coverage for gifts, trusts, and estates. Tax treatment of these vehicles is covered in Federal Taxation II. The core standards from the state framework (copied below) would be more thoroughly addressed in the curriculum with the inclusion of FIN 2001, Business Finance. In particular, Standards 1.0, 4.0, and 5.0 would all be better supported. Standards After successfully completing this program, the student will be able to perform the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 01.0 Prepare and use financial information about business organizations to support decision making. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 01.06 Analyze financial information to make informed business decisions. 02.0 Manage business information using appropriate software. 03.0 Demonstrate effective business communication skills. 04.0 Evaluate business and financial information to support internal decision making. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 04.03 Calculate and use break-even analysis and other related topics to make unstructured business decisions. 04.06 Prepare business plans, budgets, and forecasts to support the management process. 05.0 Prepare governmental tax forms, including income, payroll, and sales taxes. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 05.03 Identify and analyze tax issues, consider alternative treatments and their consequences, and decide and defend your tax treatment solution.

06.0 Consider the implications of professional values, ethics, and attitudes in business.

Section III, Important Dates and Endorsements Required

List all faculty endorsements below. (Note that proposals will be returned to the School or Division if faculty endorsements are not provided).

Accounting Technology Management, CCC

Purpose

This certificate program is part of the Accounting Technology AS degree program.

A College Credit Certificate consists of a program of instruction of less than sixty (60) credits of college-level courses, which is part of an AS or AAS degree program and prepares students for entry into employment.

The College Credit Certificate (CCC) in Accounting Technology Management program offers a sequence of courses that presents coherent and rigorous content needed to prepare for further education and for careers such as an accounts receivable coordinator, accounts payable coordinator, bookkeeper, credit and collections coordinator, payroll coordinator, accountant, auditor, and other accounting paraprofessionals in advanced professional accounting occupations.

The content includes but is not limited to the principles, procedures, and theories of organizing, analyzing and recording business and financial transactions and the preparation of accompanying financial records and reports for internal and external users.

Program Structure

This program is a planned sequence of instruction consisting of 27 credit hours of Accounting Technology Core Requirements.

VPAA: Revised 11/11, 6/12, 6/13, 7/14, 8/15, 8/16

Students completing this College Credit Certificate can transfer the credits directly to the AS Accounting Technology Degree.

Course Prerequisites

Many courses require prerequisites. Check the description of each course in the list below to check for prerequisites, minimum grade requirements, and other restrictions related to the course. Students must complete all prerequisites for a course prior to registering for it.

Certificate Completion/Graduation

Students must fulfill all requirements of their program major. Students must indicate their intention to attend commencement ceremony, by completing the Commencement Form by the published deadline.
