Date: February 23, 2018

Time: 8:30am – 12:30pm

Location: J - 103 (Lee Campus)

Presenter: Sam Offer

We live in an increasingly diverse and complex world. Leaders need to deepen their awareness, knowledge and skills in order to be effective. Leaders are often expected to know how to manage and engage all types of people and situations; however, we know this expectation is often met with disappointment. This session is designed to provide the tools and concepts for greater success.
