

Academic Success Department Meeting

January 12, 2018

12 pm- 1:30pm, AA-177

Meeting Minutes

I. Good news and updates:

II. Summer and Fall Schedule:

Dr. Clark:

- summer and fall course lists should be available for full time faculty course selection next week, courses for summer and fall are pretty much the same as last year
- enrollment data: continued enrollment up 5.8%, total FTE up 7.3%
  - total headcount up 6.4% to 15,726
  - Lee up 5.2%, H/G up 43.5%, Collier up 9.5%, Charlotte up 6%
  - SLS Fall 2017 enrollment:
    - Charlotte: 326, Collier: 774, H/G:48, Lee: 1974 FSW online: 50 TOTAL: 3272

III. Standing Committees:

Dr. Tawil: Sabbaticals – addressing the benefit to the college and community

IV. Update on Search SLS 1515 H/G

Dr. Schultz: over 70 applicants so far, closing date is Jan 15, hiring committee of 8 will narrow the field

V. Student Engagement:

Catherine Gorman:

- 3 online workshops on FSW website under student engagement
  - Career Coach 60 question survey
  - Tech Tools Quiz (w certificate upon completion)
  - Scavenger Hunt (w certificate upon completion)
- Peer Mentors-let her know of any concerns
- Event calendars are being emailed out to all students weekly
- Possibility of Cornerstone Night, athletic event, double GPS

VI. Academic Co-curricular Programming

Dr. Schultz:

- Essay contest on Freedom of the Press for students, invite submissions by Feb 7
- Upcoming CT Lectures, Author Lectures, Humanities Colloquium
- Save the week: Holocaust Memorial Week March 26-30

VII. SLS 1101 Updating Shell

Dr. Tawil:

- Cleaned up shell, 1101 now using Canvas, new textbook assigned

VIII. SLS 1515

Dr. Tawil:

- Language updated on catalog description
- OER selection-wait until Feb as Dr. Myers will tabulate
- Canvas training for adjuncts, in process with Dr. Jester/eLearning
- Critical thinking assessment:
  - Department will create own assessment as CRI being phased out
  - Preliminary questions / assessment statements for two categories shared
- True Colors: Dr. Tawil to become master trainer, then train SLS instructors