

Purchasing Process

Florida SouthWestern State College promotes free and open competition and also believes in equal opportunity practices which conform to both the spirit and letter of all laws against discrimination and is committed to nondiscrimination because of race, sex, gender, age, color, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, pregnancy, sexual orientation, marital status, genetic information or veteran's status. Potential suppliers shall have similar policies. As such, the following purchasing methods are used by the College to acquire products, services and equipment:

- Informal Quotes (Up to $15,000) – College departments, at their discretion, can solicit verbal or written quotes from vendors of their choice. Competitive quotes are not required but strongly encouraged. Vendors should take particular care when quoting prices to assure accuracy. Quotes should be provided by the requested time and date.
- Written Quotes ($15,000.00 to $64,999.99) College departments will solicit written quotes from at least three vendors of their choice. The lowest competitive quote meeting specifications shall be chosen unless the College department can document why the lowest competitive quote does not meet specifications. Written quotes should be provided by the requested time and date and vendors should take particular care when quoting prices to assure accuracy.
- Formal Solicitations ($65,000.00 and over) College departments must contact Procurement Services to initiate a formal solicitation for a needed product or service unless the product or service can be obtained timely and economically via another contract source, is exempt according to Florida State Board of Education Administrative Rule 6A-14.0734(2) or can be categorized as a single/sole source product or service.

FSW Procurement Services is committed to providing certified women-owned, service-disabled veterans and minority-owned (CMB) business enterprises the opportunity to conduct business with the College. Procurement Services promotes CMB business enterprises to its internal departments and participates in community outreach events.
