1. OER Petting Zoo Open Education Week March 3-5
   Prof. Herren ordered several OpenStax books in hard copy for faculty review at the Petting Zoo and beyond. Dr. Jester suggested taking them into department meetings for faculty who didn't make it to the Petting Zoo and to help raise awareness.

   - Getting OpenStax books back and forth
     - Dr. Mompoint will take books to Collier and bring back to Lee, Prof. Herren will ask librarian to take to Charlotte on 3/5 and Charlotte library will mail them back to Lee via interlibrary mail
   - Which OERs do we want to show case?
     - Group discussion of different OERs, decided to start google doc with suggestions for different resources to show case along with several Canvas shells of courses using OER
   - Quick Guide Handouts?
     - Copies of OER handout created by the Seattle Central College Library will be made available at the Petting Zoo

2. FLVC OER Summit May 21-22, Seminole Campus of St. Petersburg College
   - Discussed the apparent lack of funds for travel to OER Summit this year, members interested in going were directed to fill out forms for PD funding, noting the deadline for PD travel funds is 2/28

3. OER/low cost course materials responses
-Prof. Herren shared the responses received thus far from across the college with the committee, so far we have around 44 courses with 0 or low cost course materials at FSW

-Agreed to add the Cengage platform Computer Sciences is using as special note in list to acknowledge the work that department is doing in moving toward OER or lower cost materials.
-Dr. Rose brought up that the dept would like to go OER but need to find quality course materials

4. March 20th meeting- Jackie Beard from Student Engagement/ SGA advisor
   -Committee agreed to invite Jackie Beard to next meeting to work on plan for more student engagement with OER and textbook affordability

No new business and meeting adjourned at 10:40.

Next meeting 3/20 at 10:00 am
