Hi Brandon,

Jeffrey found a minor language issue on your approved course proposal when coding AMH 2070 into Banner.

We're asking your permission to make a change to the D/I language on AMH 2070, and to present this as a Committee Information Item at the December meeting:

International/Diversity designation was intended for this course. Committee inadvertently missed language issue in proposal. As there is no D/I requirement for students, this language will be removed: "This course also counts toward the requirements for International/Diversity focus course." It will be replaced with the usual Catalog notation: (I) designation after Course Title, and explanatory statement below Course Description: (I) International or diversity focus.

See the following example from WOH 1012 of how this appears in the Catalog:

Additional Social Sciences General Education Courses

WOH 1012 - History of World Civilization to 1500 - (I) - writing intensive

WOH 1012 – History of World Civilization to 1500 – (I)

3 credits

Prerequisites: SB 1720 Testing Exemption or Testing into ENC 1101; or completion of {(ENC 0025 and REA 0017) or (ENC 0022 and REA 0019)} with a “C” or better; or EAP 1620 and EAP 1640 with a “C” or better; or an eligible testing/course completion combination

Required: Writing intensive—a minimum of 4,000 words of instructor–evaluated writing per student

This course is a compact survey of the evolution of civilization from early times to 1500. All major areas and countries are included. Europe, the Middle East, Asia, Africa, India, China, Japan, and North, Central and South America receive appropriate emphasis. The major focus will be on the political, economic, and social views of the world. This course is termed a writing intensive course and requires a minimum of 4,000 words of instructor–evaluated writing per student, including a minimum of three graded assignments over the duration of the course. If completed with a grade of “C” or better, this course serves to complete part of the writing intensive course requirements.

(I) International or diversity focus

If you approve, the Registrar's office will make the correction. Jeff will add this email and your response to the archives for this course.

You would need to correct your syllabus to simply list the (I) International or diversity focus language under the course description. Then, forward this revised syllabus to Dr. Teed / Wendie Thompson so it may be uploaded to the Document Manager.

As always, let me know if you have questions or if I can help.
