

Criminal Justice Advisory Board Meeting

February 19, 2020

In attendance: Krissy Cabral, Ashley Espinal, Lt Chris Gonzalez CCSO, John Long LCSO, Mike Nisson, Judy Dantes, Debbie Psihountas, Ivan Kiselev CCSO, Lisa Barnes, Jason Ciaschini, Keith Henson, Jessica Barnett, Caroline Siefert, Dr. Richard Worch

The chair Chief Barkley has stepped down; he took a position in a different part of FI. A new chair will need to be chosen, although there is not enough in attendance to decide today. Dr. Worch would like to send a letter to Chief Barkley to thank him for his service.

PAD Program update - Dr. Worch

- Program is completely online with the exception of the Capstone class, which consists of an analytical research project based on a real-life problem that the students will present at the end of the course.
- Students are prepared to move on to a Master's program

CJ Program update – Professor Nisson

- Program is 100% online
- In the process of updating all Syllabii this spring

CST Program update – Professor Cabral

- Prof. Cabral gave a brief introduction of herself and her background
- Direction of the program → hands-on demonstration workshop
- Students who finish will be well-rounded in all aspects of crime scene

New Business

- A new chair will need to be chosen
- Dr. Psihountas-not getting much interest from current recruitment efforts.
- Cape Coral PD allows 5 years to meet college credit requirement
- Port Charlotte PD doesn't have a degree requirement
- Carrie Siefert –advisor
  - BAS Supervision & Management degree is a leadership type program
  - Carrie identified some courses that can be used as part of the PAD program as electives to give leadership education
    - MAN 3046 Leadership & Team Development
    - MAN 3120 Organizational Behavior & Leadership
    - MAN 3303 Leadership & Management Practices
    - MAN 4113 Understanding & Managing Diversity
    - MAN 4720 Strategic Management & Organizational Policy