 - Introduce new book for Fall 2021, “explain” OBOC, describe book selection process
 - Attendees to receive free copy of book
 - Volunteer co-presenter/facilitator Sabine Maetzke!
 - Suggested Title: OBOC Informational Session: A Life On Our Planet for 2021-2022
 - The OBOC Committee would like to introduce our 2021-2022 book selection to faculty. The goal is to build understanding regarding the OBOC initiative and the book selection process. Plans will be discussed for integrating the book and its themes across disciplines and through FSW events and activities.
- March PD to share/brainstorm
- Plan / inquire about TLC PD Event on Duty Days in Fall
- College Wide
 - Work with Student Engagement:
 - Fall Kick Off Event
 - Panel discussions/presentations/guest speaker lectures (at least one per month?)
 - Film Screening(s)-A Life on Our Planet documentary or other related films
 - Service Projects (at least one per semester?)
 - Off campus trips-nature center, Everglades, outdoor recreation (kayak, snorkel, hike, etc.) sustainable farm (ECHO), alternative energy (FGCU, Babcock Ranch), etc.
 - Plan book chats: recruit facilitators, align with Student Engagement themes, locations and/or Zoom?
 - Develop a “universal” discussion guide/questions, or reading guide?
 - Possible Scholarship Competition
 - Recruit participation from other groups:
 - Student organizations/clubs with OBOC (Jackie Beard)
 - Ask Jordan Donini, Lisa McGarrity, Emily Porter
 - Peer Mentors (Catherine Gorman)
 - Housing/Residential Life (recycling, energy usage, sustainable food choices, garden?)
 - Athletics, Honors Scholars, Active Minds
- Departments/Schools
 - Discussions with FSW Schools to plan their own related events, i.e. SoBT (Corporate Responsibility Panel Discussion), SoHP, SoE, SoPAS, SoAHSS - encourage one event per school?
 - Develop discussion guide/questions, reading guide within subject area/department/school?
 - Departments/schools host “book chats”?

- Suggest OBOC visit department meetings...need 2 people
- Other areas needing attention/consideration:
 - Canvas OBOC course needs to update for new book
 - Re-think “Thought leaders” for new book
 - OBOC student ambassadors for new book?
- Other ideas to plan for Fall 2021 implementation of A Life on Our Planet?
