3. Agenda and Notes, Decisions, Issues
Topic	Discussion
Delivery modality for ANEW didactic courses	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Initially ANEW (evening/weekend) didactic courses set up as 800 asynchronous courses compliant with eLearning requirements. Not all ANEW 800 courses are compliant with eLearning requirements and some courses include live online interactions Discussion held regarding options for delivery of ANEW didactic courses Determined by unanimous vote that, beginning with the Spring 2021 semester, all ANEW didactic courses would be 900 courses and delivered in the Live Online modality ANEW didactic courses will be held on the same weekday as the traditional course so that students will test on the same day
Clarification of Modalities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Jenn Washburn clarified the delivery options for Live Online <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 100% of the meeting times are live online (audio recorded lectures not necessary) Up to 50% of the class meeting time is live online with the remainder of the class asynchronous with audio recorded lectures If the class will not be meeting 100% live online, then faculty must list specific meeting dates and times prior student registration (this information will be given to Jennifer Washburn when classes are set up)
Nursing faculty	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Nursing faculty are not either traditional or ANEW. All ASN faculty can teach for either program
