- Civic Literacy (Randy Moffett)
 - Concern: Programs have dropped econ req and added civ lit req and GEAC reduced SS gen ed credits; concerned that SS enrollment will decr.
 - Sheila: POS & AMH should talk to academic advising about when students should take civ lit course
 - Econ still recommended by business and tech as elective
 - Social media marketing for courses that might be challenged for enrollment (market as electives)
 - TO-DO: send out email to dept to see if anyone is interested in establishing a SS Marketing team for SS courses (particularly econ and other gen eds for electives; Charlotte campus as well); Jackie Davis would partake

- Search Committee Updates
 - POS – two candidates selected (lee & HG), offers will be made soon
 - ECON—search in process to fill position at HG

- Assessment: Eric Seelau
 - POS, AMH, PSY, ECO
 - Will create report after SP22 results come in and goals can be established in FA22
 - Reminder: Distribute course assessments at end of semester
 - TO-DO: send out reminder to all faculty about assessments, and remind them to NOT randomize answers in Canvas
 - Next AY22-23 Ged Ed assessment: Visualize & engage

- Curriculum: Sheila Seelau
 - Updates
 - Health sciences, intro psy, socio will be recommended but not required
 - Congrats on a job well done!
