Bucs CARE:

- Dr. Terrence Hays, Director CARE Services
- Website: www.fsw.edu/bucscare
  - Faculty form (student of concern)
  - Student form
  - CARE pantry (all campuses)
  - BetterMynd (free online therapy/teletherapy until October)
  - Christie Campus (free online or in-person therapy October+)
  - Partner w/The Center for Progress & Excellence – Free Mobile Crisis Center
  - Working on MOUs w/David Lawrence Center for Behavioral Health (Collier), Charlotte Behavioral Health Care (Char), Salus Care & Park Royal (Lee) for in-person therapy/treatments
  - Partnering with Jed Foundation: Non-profit organization, work w/H.S. & colleges to help build their mental health, substance misuse, and suicide prevention programs; Mission: Protect emotional health and prevent suicide for teens and young adults.
    - Dr. Hays will be sending Jed baseline assessment/survey to select faculty by Aug 24 (due by Oct 3); the survey is designed to collect information about our current approach to mental health care, consists of 151 questions (okay if you don't know the answers to some Qs), should take about an hour to complete, and will be due by Oct 3.
- Please know this info and share it w/students (put on syllabus, add mental health module to Canvas—use the one I created in the Commons for convenience). The module includes pertinent info about Bucs CARE and Safe Zone. In Canvas, click Commons, type Mental Health in search box (“Free Mental Health Care and Other Support Services at FSW”), Import/download.
- Sample for syllabus:

Mental Health Matters...

Mental health and well-being matter when it comes to being successful at school, work, and in our relationships. The Bucs CARE office provides support for students experiencing life challenges during their time at FSW. Please take advantage of these services and spread the word!

Other business:

- Blanket statement about controversial content in class
  - TO DO: Get disclaimer statement from Wendy Chase; share with department to tweak for blanket statement (ask Wendy for her notes, share with SS dept (Lauren Madak requested) –emailed this info to faculty 8/18/22
- Legal team, VPAA: What can students do with class recordings? Should we alert students that the class might be recorded? Can we request students stop recording when other students are speaking?
- OBOC (Brandon Jett)—please attend the events!
- Tom Donaldson suggested SS off-campus gatherings!
- eLearning (Leslie Bartley): Master shell review system will be starting this fall 2002 (reviewing courses that have not been reviewed in a while). Social sciences appears to be in good standing right now, but we might receive email from Laura Osgood indicating that our course(s) will be reviewed.
