Faculty who may need assistance:

- Cal Rea – ANT, no Internet; T/Th morning class (10-1120am) can be covered while he’s at FGCU, but without internet, he may not be able to connect with his Monday ANT1411 class that meets 6-840pm (many places are closed by 840p). He will keep us informed about his internet.
 - An email is circulating between Cal, Terri Housley, Brian Page, and Debbie Teed.
- Juan Carlos – No internet, but will find a place to go to connect to wifi
- Leslie Bartley – she will be ready, but recently got internet but it’s not solid yet; she is putting together a basic start up plan, will inform us if anything changes

Students’ status:

- Leslie/Phil/Tom: If we want to survey students to determine their status, we can use Canvas Quizzes

H-22 grade:

- Bruno: How does H-22 grade apply to DE students? –Dr. Teed was asked this question in SoAHSS meeting and said she would find out

BucsCARE:

- Terri Housley will reach out to Dr. Hays, Dr. Palmer, and Dr. Yovanovitch to get update on how faculty should go about connecting students in need to BucsCARE
 - Emailed 10/10/22 and Dr. Hays sent links for faculty to use to report students in need

Acute Stress Disorder:

- Cat Tallant offered to run a session/workshop for our department on acute stress, she can offer to college as a whole via TLC, too.

Office Hours:

- For those with office hours on Lee, shift to Zoom office hours

Final Grades Deadline:

- Brandon Jett—Can we ask for an extension past Dec 15 to get final grades in?
 - I emailed Dr. Teed asking, but grades will likely need to be in by then. Faculty should update their courses so that final exams take place during the week of Dec 7-13, 2022.

Assessment:

- Common course assessment are not a priority, particularly for those who use paper/pencil on Lee campus. Assessments can resume in SP23.
