

QEP Curriculum Committee

Minutes

Q128

2/12/14

Dr. Martin Tawil	Present	Kelley Newhouse	Absent
Dr. Eileen DeLuca	Absent	Cynthia Lozano	Present
Cindy Ewald	Present	Freida Miller	Absent
Dr. Caroline Seefchak	Present	Jamie Marecz	Absent
Elaine Schaeffer	Absent	Terri Heck	Present
Sandra Seifert	Absent
Barbara Miley	Absent

- 1- Based on the recommendation of faculty, the Committee worked on modifying the Critical Thinking Journals as follows:

Critical Thinking Journal (2014)	Proposed Language	Modified (Yes or No)
CJ1	None	No
CJ2 Using your SmarterMeasure and California Critical Thinking Disposition Inventory (CCTDI) results, identify your strengths and reflect on how these strengths will contribute to your success. Discover and outline your challenges by listing specific skills that you will improve during the next fourteen weeks.	Looking at your results of the California Critical Thinking Disposition Inventory (CCTDI). In what areas are you strong? How do your strengths make you a better student? Write down what area you need improvement and list action steps you will take to improve.	Yes
CJ3	None	No
CJ 4	None	No
CJ 5 Identify and discuss strategies for achieving a balanced approach to college. Include how time management and financial responsibility help you successfully complete your college education.	Discuss how time management and financial responsibility help you successfully complete your college	Yes

QEP Curriculum Committee

Minutes

Q128

2/12/14

	education.
CJ6 Describe how participation in Edison GPS (Go, Picture, Scribe) has helped you develop an appreciation for diversity. What role does diversity play in influencing your academic, social, and career success?	Describe how your participation in the GPS (Go Picture Scribe) has helped you to become a part of FSW and to develop an understanding of diversity.	Yes
CJ 7	Deleted	Yes

- 2- Textbooks – Publishers will be invited to present to the committee the new products with an electronic platform for 3/19/2014 meeting.
- 3- New Business – none

Minutes submitted by Martin Tawil